Food Truck Terms & Conditions 🐝

1. Booking & Payment

Site fees must be paid within 7 days of booking confirmation unless otherwise agreed. Unpaid bookings may be released.

2. Cancellations

Cancellations within 7 days of the event are non-refundable. Transfers or credits may be offered at our discretion.

3. Setup & Pack-down

Vendors are responsible for their own equipment, belongings, setup and pack-down within allocated times. Please leave your site clean and tidy.

4. Vehicles & Safety

Follow all directions regarding site placement, vehicle movements and parking. Ensure pedestrian access and all equipment remain safe.

5. Trading Hours

Please trade until advertised closing time unless sold out. Let's keep the good vibes going until the end!

6. Equipment & Compliance

Vendors must be self-sufficient, appropriately lit, insured and hold all required licences and permits. Electrical leads must be safely covered to prevent trip hazards.

7. Event Directions

Please follow all reasonable directions from Beehive Events and venue staff, particularly regarding safety and accessibility.

8. Wet Weather & Postponements

We will always aim to proceed where possible. If weather or other circumstances create safety concerns, the Event Manager may modify, postpone or cancel the event.

Where possible, bookings and fees will transfer to a postponement date. If you cannot attend the new date, please contact us within 7 days to discuss options.

If cancelled without a postponement date, credits, transfers or refunds will be considered according to the circumstances. Standard cancellation terms apply if vendors choose not to attend an event proceeding as planned.

9. Insurance & Liability

Vendors are responsible for their own vehicles, equipment, stock, staff and operations. All vendors must hold current Public Liability Insurance (minimum $20 million) and provide proof upon request. Beehive Events accepts no responsibility for loss, theft, damage or injury arising from vendor operations, except where required by law. Vendors are responsible for any damage or injury caused by their own negligence or unsafe practices.

10. Enjoy Yourself!
We're here for community, collaboration and good vibes. Enjoy the event, meet your fellow vendors and have fun!

Collaboration, not competition! 🐝
